will meet to-morrow to consider a tariff program, to be recommended to

It was learned to-day that the Re-publicans of the committee, in their mi-nority report, to be submitted when the committee reports the tariff bill, will declare that the Democratic measure is retrogressive and appears to be unanimously approved abroad; that some of the rates in the bill provide incidental protection, instead of being incidental protection, instead of being rolely for revenue purposes, and will attack the change of the present rates to an ad valorem basis as being in conflict with the experience of all the great councries of the world except one. They will insist that the new bill would reverse the government's whole policy; that the Payne-Aldrich law, now in operation, can raise all the revenue needed to meet government demands; that the Democratic plan would involve a deficit of $100,000,000, that would have to be met by wartime taxation methods, and that without the present maximum and minimum clause it would not be possible for President Wilson to get tariff concessions from foreign countries.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., April &—Deeds were signed to-day by which the Norfolk Baseball Corporation acquires title to a plot of ground two city lots in extent, on which a new baseball and general athletic field, better than any in Virginia, will be constructed as soon as possible. The new park will be owned outright and operated by the Norfolk Baseball Corporation, which controls the Norfolk franchise in the Virginia League. When completed the new park will represent an outlay of more than $49,000.

The new park will be opposite the new car barns of the Virginia Railway and Power Company, where the athletic field was up to two years ago. It will be one block from Church Street, one from Eighteenth Street, and the same distance from the terminal of the traction company, thus giving patrons three ways of reaching it.

After several weeks of negotiations the deal was completed to-day by Dr. J. R. McCrary, president, and Charles S. Shafer, secretary and treasurer of the Norfolk Baseball Corporation.
